Forest Health Update:

What to Expect this Season

Catch up on the latest tree health concerns in Massachusetts. Ken Gooch will share up-to-the-minute information on Gypsy moth, Emerald ash borer, hemlock wooly adelgid, and expectations of the southern pine beetle should it become established in our area. He'll also address the spotted lantern fly, white pine disease issues, and will provide an update on the Asian longhorned beetle eradication in Worcester County. See examples of how our trees are impacted by these issues and learn management strategies to employ this season.
