What to Expect & How to Prepare

SPEAKER

Dan Eaton
Owner, Allphase

CDL-licensed employees are a necessity at every tree care company. From daily vehicle inspections and system analysis to cargo securement and emergency maneuvers, there's a lot that goes into preparing for the CDL test. If you are looking to obtain your CDL license, or simply want to brush up on the safety subject matter, this seminar is for you. You'll learn what's changed over the years and how to best prepare for the test. We'll also touch on hoisting, and weather permitting we'll execute a pre-trip vehicle inspection for visual examples of safety concerns.

Pruning with Intent

Pruning a tree to react in a way that creates a sustainable, safe and healthy structure in the urban landscape requires time and a very specific skill set. As a tree care professional you understand the dynamics of pruning, but does your customer get where you're going? When you prune with intent it is important to communicate what your intended outcome might be right from the start. We'll explore the concept of pruning with intent including specific examples from the field along with suggestions for how to communicate intent and manage customer expectations.
